9.8 Meetings of the Board:

9.8.1 The Board shall meet a minimum of four (4) times per year, at such places and times, and in such manner, as it shall determine.

9.8.2 The Chairperson shall chair Board meetings, or in his/her absence any other Board Member determined by the Board.

9.8.3 A resolution in writing, dated and signed or assented to by facsimile, or other form of visible or other electronic communication by all the Board Members shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of Board Members. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more Board Members, totalling all Board Members.

9.8.4 A meeting of the Board may be held where one or more of the Board Members are not physically present at the meeting, provided that:

(a) all persons participating in the meeting are able to communicate with each other effectively simultaneously and instantaneously whether by means of telephone or other form of communication;

(b) notice of the meeting is given to all the Board Members in accordance with the procedures agreed from time to time by the Board and such notice specifies that Board Members are not required to be present in person at the meeting;

(c) if a failure in communications prevents Rule 9.8.4 from being satisfied and such failure results in the quorum not being met, the meeting shall be suspended until condition (a) is satisfied again. If such condition is not satisfied within 15 minutes from the interruption the meeting shall be deemed to have terminated or adjourned.

(d) Any meeting held where one or more of the Board Members is not physically present shall be deemed to be held at the place specified in the notice of meeting provided a Board Member is there present and if no Board Member is there present the meeting shall be deemed to be held at the place where the Chairperson of the meeting is located.

- (e) A Board Member who is absent from a Board Meeting without prior approval or without reasonable explanation, shall be deemed to have vacated their office as a Board Member.

9.8.5 Voting at Board Meetings; Each Board Member shall have one vote at Board Meetings. All decisions and resolutions of the Board shall be determined by a vote of a majority of Board Members present at a Board Meeting. Subject to Rule 9.8.3 and 9.8.4, voting may be verbal, by show of hands, or secret ballot (if requested by any Board Member). The Chairperson shall have the casting vote.

9.8.6 Quorum for Board Meetings; There shall be no less than three Board Members present at a Board Meeting (including a meeting held under Rule 9.8.4) to constitute a quorum.

9.8.7 The Board shall keep the Members informed of its business by making reports available at least quarterly.

9.8.8 The Board shall make the minutes of its meetings available to members within fourteen (14) days after each meeting

9.8.9 The Board may arrange meetings with Members between Annual General Meetings to keep Members informed of its business.

10. GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1 Annual and Special General Meetings

10.1.2 The Chairperson of an Annual General Meeting shall be the Chairperson or his/her nominee from the Board.

10.1.3 Not less than fourteen (14) days notice shall be given of every General Meeting to all Members and such notice shall clearly set forth the business to be transacted at such meeting.

10.1.4 Business of which due notice has not been given, may be dealt with provided that the consent of not less than 75% of the votes cast at the meeting support the same.

10.1.5 A Special General Meeting shall be convened by the Manager upon receiving either a signed requisition by the Board, or a signed requisition from not less than 25% of the Member Clubs. Any such requisition and notice shall state the business to be brought forward at such meeting. Such meeting shall be called within one month of the receipt of such requisition by notice sent to all those entitled to receive notice of an Annual General Meeting.

10.2 Attendance and Voting at General Meetings

10.2.1 All Members, and any additional authorised representatives as provided in these rules shall be entitled to attend all General Meetings.

10.2.2 All present at a General Meeting shall, with the consent of the Chairperson, be entitled to speak, but only Member Club or Affiliated Association Presidents, or their authorised representatives may move and second motions make or second nominations, speak and vote thereon.

10.2.3 For the purpose of voting at any General Meeting of the Association each club will be entitled to:

- a) One delegate for a club which has not more than 200 members, based on membership declarations as at 31st October in the year of the Annual General Meeting.
- b) Two delegates for a club that has more than 200 members, based on membership declarations as at 31st October in the year of the Annual General Meeting.

10.2.4 The voting on any question shall be decided by hands or at the request of any person entitled to vote by, secret ballot.

10.2.5 In the event of any Member Club or Affiliated Association President or authorised representative being unable to attend any General Meeting, that Member Club or Affiliated Association President may appoint in writing, the Chairperson of the Board, to act as proxy for such Member Club or Affiliated Association President at such General Meeting. In such case, the Chairman as appointed proxy shall vote in accordance with his/her instructions in writing.

10.2.6 No Member Club or Affiliated Association representative shall be entitled to vote at any meeting until their name shall have been so lodged and until the Member Club or Affiliated Association which they represent has paid its subscription and any other moneys then due and payable by such Member Club or Affiliated Association.

11. PATRON

11.1 A Patron can only be appointed at an Annual General Meeting

12. SELECTORS

12.1 Selectors shall be ratified annually by the Board, normally at the Board Meeting held immediately after the Annual General Meeting.

13. FINANCE, ANNUAL REPORT AND AUDIT

13.1 All moneys of the Association shall be paid into such bank or banks as the Board may from time to time determine, to the credit of the Association, and subject to the provisions hereinafter appearing all accounts shall, before being paid, be passed for payment by the Board.

13.2 All accounts shall be paid by cheque signed in such manner as the Board may from time to time determine.

13.3 No resolution relating to any single item of expenditure or commitment to borrow in excess of $50,000 or the execution of any lease for a term greater than three (3) years including any right of renewal at a rental in excess of $20,000 per annum shall be passed by the Board unless such resolution shall have been approved first by a majority of not less than sixty (60) per cent of the Board and second by a majority of not less than sixty (60) per cent of those present and entitled to vote at a General Meeting of the Association.

13.4 Each Year's accounts shall be audited and certified by an auditor or auditors duly appointed, and be submitted with a report of the preceding Year's proceedings to the Annual General Meeting of the Association.

13.5 After the Annual Report, Statement of Receipts and Payments, Balance Sheet, and Budget forecast have been approved by the Board and the said statement duly audited, they shall be printed, together with a notice convening the Annual General Meeting and setting forth the business to be transacted at such meeting and a copy delivered to all Members.

14. DISCIPLINE

14.1 Any Member may make a formal complaint in writing to the Board relating to the conduct and behaviour of any other Member or to any breach of these Rules or of the Rules of Squash or the Rules and Regulations of New Zealand Squash Incorporated by any member and unless the Board considers the complaint to be trivial, frivolous or malicious, it shall deal with the complaint under Rule 14.3.

14.2 The Board may of its own motion deal with any matter which could have been the subject of a written complaint under Rule 14.1 even though a written complaint has not been made. The Board may furthermore of its own motion deal with any infringement, breach or non compliance with these Rules by any Member Club as if such infringement, breach or non compliance was the subject of a written complaint.

14.3 When considering a complaint under Rule 14.1 the Board shall adopt such disciplinary procedures as it determines to be appropriate. If the conduct of any Member, whether as a Member of a Club or otherwise, has adversely affected or might adversely affect the reputation, good name or welfare of the Association, or a Member breaches these Rules or any regulation or Rules of Squash or a bylaw made by the Board under the powers given to it under these Rules, the Board shall advise the Member of details of any alleged conduct or breach and shall consider the alleged conduct or breach at a meeting, the time and place of which shall also be notified to the Member in writing.

14.4 if after considering all information and relevant matters put before it at that meeting the Board decides by a majority that the conduct has been shown on a balance of probability to be such as to have adversely affected, or be likely to adversely affect the reputation, good name or welfare of the Association or that the breach by its nature or repeated commission is sufficiently serious to merit serious penalty the Board may impose a penalty of censure, suspension or expulsion from the Association as it considers appropriate. The Member shall be entitled to be present at the meeting together with any representative, counsel or solicitor as the member desires to have present to speak or make submissions on behalf of the member, and to bring witnesses to the alleged conduct or breach who shall be entitled to give to the Board such information as they may have about the conduct or breach and may be questioned by the Board Members about these matters. A person who has made a complaint under Rule 14.1 shall have the same rights.

14.5 When the Board exercises its powers under Rule 14.2 it shall appoint a special subcommittee to consider and determine the matter in accordance with the procedure under Rule 14.3 and the Board shall have the same powers to present information and to call witnesses and be represented by one of its Members and/or a solicitor or counsel before the subcommittee as are given to a defendant under that Rule.

15. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ASSOCIATIONS AND CLUBS

15.1 All Affiliated Clubs and Associations shall be provided with a list of the Association's Members, a copy of the Rules of the Association and from time to time with any amendments made, or any other information as the Board may from time to time determine, and be bound thereby, and in case of any wilful infringement thereof shall be liable to suspension or disqualification by the Association. Copies of such Rules shall be available to all Members, at a price to be decided on by the Board.

16. NOTICES

16.1 Every notice required to be given to any Members or other person entitled to any notice or any of them, shall be deemed to have been duly delivered, if posted to the last known place of residence or business, or where the intended recipient has advised an email address to the Manager, notice may be provided by email.

17. SEAL

17.1 The Association shall have a common seal. The Board shall determine when and by whom the common seal is to be used and make provision for its safe custody subject to the Act.

18. ALTERATIONS TO RULES

18.1 No alteration, rescission or addition to this Constitution shall be made except by consent of not less than sixty (60) per cent of the votes cast at a General Meeting of the Association. Notice of any proposed alteration or addition shall be given in writing to the Manager one (1) month at least before the meeting at which it is intended to propose such alteration or addition, and the Manager shall forward not less than twenty-one (21) days notice prior to such meeting of such proposed alteration or addition to all Members. The Manager shall ensure that the amended constitution is duly filed with the Registrar.

19. BY-LAWS

19.1 Unless otherwise directed by a General Meeting the Board shall have power to make, alter or repeal such by-laws as it may think fit for the well-being of the Association, and the decision of the Board on all questions shall be final and binding unless and until set aside or varied by the Association in General Meeting.

20. WINDING UP

20.1 If upon the winding up of the Association there remains, after satisfaction of all debts and liabilities, any property or funds whatsoever, the same shall not be distributed or paid amongst the Members of the Association, but shall be transferred or given to such other Association, Club or Institution having objects similar to those of the Association as shall be determined by the Members of the Association at or before the time of winding up and in default thereof as may be directed upon applications to the High Court of New Zealand in that behalf.
